Howdy...me...we are living in the USA alright...high gas, inflation, high meat, political violence, political vengeance for opponents, people hating other people because they just disagree and people violently rounded up in the street and sent to a detention center where they are treated violently, even though later it is found out they did no wrong or committed no crime.

Yuccchhhhhh. Music is what I use to escape the news. As Lukas Nelson will say a little later, “Turn off The News (And Grow a Garden).” We need to find peace. Whether you reach for help from family, friends, therapists, church, mediation, or any other vehicle to get your sense of peace and well-being, DO IT. That’s what I intend to do with this podcast, Dan-o’s Delights – Episode 179.
